Georgia Monastiriotis lives in Corfu the place where she was born and grew up. Georgia is married and is mother of two young adults. She likes meeting new people and express herself by the means of art.

She graduated from the Corfu Art School where she studied drawing and painting by late Spyros Alamanos. Mr. Kostas Tobros' and Ms. Manty Albani's influence was crucial for the development of Georgia's own style in art. In parallel to her studies in the Corfu Art School, she was taught drawing by Mr. Tzinis Dimitratos and watercolour by Ms Natalie Konstantis. She concluded her art studies at Sophia Stavrou's art workshop in Corfu.

Below are listed some of the art exhibitions she has participated in:

- 2008 Art Cafe Dust - Corfu
- 2008 Hall of Art and Reason - Patras, Greece
